The youngest of nine children, Dr. Davoudi was sixteen when he decided that he wanted to become a doctor. Raised in Portland, Oregon, he began living on his own at a young age and worked many jobs, but always kept his education a priority. When Dr. Davoudi had the opportunity to go to college, he did not take it lightly.

He attended Oregon State University, and completed his Bachelor of Science degree. He then applied and was accepted as one of only six students from out of state to attend the Medical College of Georgia where he received his Doctorate of Medicine degree. He completed his general surgery training in Augusta, and was then accepted into the prestigious plastic surgery training program at the University of Tennessee, where after completing his plastic surgery training, was asked to join the staff as Assistant Professor of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery.

Dr. Davoudi is double board certified in General Surgery and Plastic Surgery. He received the Physician's Recognition Award for 2005–2008 by the American Medical Association and was honored by Accent Gwinnett Magazine's readers as one of Gwinnett's Best Doctors. In 2006 and 2007 he was also named America's Top Plastic Surgeon by the Consumers Research Council of America.

Why plastic surgery? Dr. Davoudi enjoys the diversity of the field and the opportunity to make an impact on his patients' lives. He is passionate about what he does and his passion is evident in the quality of care he provides.

Why Atlantic Center for Cosmetic Surgery? They are known for the warm, comfortable décor and friendly, thoughtful nature of the staff. They go above and beyond the call of duty because they know that you have your choice of plastic surgeons, and Dr. Davoudi understands that cosmetic surgery must be tailored for each patient.
